Cengage Advantage Series: Voyage Of Discovery: A Historical Introduction To Philosophy

Synopsis

Philosophy is a dynamic historical conversation rather than a collection of fixed opinions and conclusions. With VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY: A HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY, you'll be able to retrace each philosopher's intellectual journey and add your voice to the philosophical conversation. The book's biographical stories, striking examples, diagrams, photos, and study tools help you master concepts and understand their practical implications.

"It is the best written survey history of philosophy textbook I have found (and I have looked at many of them). . . . I know I sound like a Lawhead fan club, but I really like these textbooks, and they have helped me in the teaching of these courses." "This book is an excellent survey of the history of western philosophy--ancient, medieval, modern, and contemporary--through the 'great figures' approach."

William Lawhead received a Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of Texas. Presently, he is Chair of the Philosophy Department at the University of Mississippi where he focuses on History of Philosophy, Philosophy of Religion, and Philosophy of Language.

Served its purpose well. A lot better deal than the college bookstore. If you can avoid college bookstores, do so. They just like to milk you dry of the little money you do have for college.

Renting is the way to go when looking for college books.

The delivery of the book was very prompt. But, the shape of the book, was almost poor condition!!! It had a dried spilled stain 1/3 of the way through the book and when you open the book to the middle it is falling apart. I will be lucky if it holds together throughout my semesters!!!

Arrived like it was picked out of a dumpster and run over by the dump truck. Very disappointed. I wrote to complain but received little solution.

Pretty smooth reading or a textbook. I rented it—that's much more economical, and nothing here is in depth enough that you'll want to own the book long term.

Book is in great condition. Thanks!

My niece used it for college classes and it was perfect.

Great!
