Multiple Sclerosis Many Stories Many Symptoms: A Book Written By People Living With Multiple Sclerosis, About How They Deal With The Challenges They Face.

Synopsis

A collection of short stories and testimonies written by real people living with Multiple Sclerosis, a chronic disease of the central nervous system which affects more than 2 million people worldwide. It provides a real insight into the challenges they face every day; from mobility problems, bladder problems and numbness and tingling, to employment and starting a family, and how they deal with these challenges. The 'stories' are often funny, sometimes confronting but always honest.
