Mauro Mazzara started drawing at the age of two and he still hasn't stopped! He attended the Arte & Messaggio Illustration school in Milan before studying painting at the Brea Art Academy. He now works as a freelance illustrator for the fashion, publishing, and advertising industries. Andrea Piparo was born in Rome in 1990, where he graduated from art school in via Ripetta and continued his studies by attending the illustration course at the International School of Comics. He has appeared in various collective exhibitions, produced several portraits on commission, and contributed to the 2013 calendar of the Italian National Police. He has also exhibited at various events such as Fantastika, Dozza (Bologna) in 2014 and at Wow Comics Space (Milan) in 2015. He currently lives and works in Castelnuovo di Porto in the province of Rome.

I love this coloring book. I read other reviews before deciding to purchase, as I was not sure this was a coloring book I would enjoy. I am so glad I decided to give it a try! When I received it I immediately sat down, went through it, and took out my colored pencils. I love the Lord of the Rings and the pictures in this book are just waiting for color to make them come alive. I am enjoying it immensely.

I'm giving it a five for the awesome art work! But I am also subtracted 3 stars because it printed on both sides of the paper! I'm still happy about it!

Book had a massive scuff on cover which somewhat blended the words together at the top left. Other than the damage to the book itself the contents are great.

Artwork is fantastic!

Bought for as a Christmas item. Told it is one he wanted and that it was the best he could find.

Great coloring book! A must have for any Tolkien fan. Seller was amazingly fast! A+

A nice selection of Tolkien imagery not usually found elsewhere.

My Tolkien enthusiast adult son loves it!
