SAL MURDOCCA has illustrated over 200 children's trade and textbooks. He teaches children's illustration at Parsons School of Design in New York City.

Best children's book series. We have read all 52 in paperback and are waiting for the most recent to come out in paperback. does not always have the best prices for this series but has been helpful in locating numbers not as easily found other places.

I got this book for my nephew for his birthdays as he reads the series. The books came packed well and there was no nicks or defects on them. I love how the hardcover book was only a couple dollars more and that I could make my nephew happy and smile on his birthday!!

I am teaching two little girls all of their subjects at home and have found these books both educational but enjoyable for them to read as they progress. Thank you very much.

This is my favorite book series for children! So educational and entertaining at the same time!!

My 6 year old first grader son is in love with these books. He reads a book in about 2 days. I couldn't believe how interested he was in reading. Perfect adventure books for kids!

The Magic Tree House books are our "go to" bedtime stories. All of Jack and Annie's adventures help children envision the places that each adventure occurs.

My daughter LOVES this series, we have been reading it since kindergarten and I have to admit, I love them as well! She is in first grade now and re-reads the collection on her own. Highly recommend.

Not the best story in the series, but still well written and enjoyable for me and my son.
