She lives in New York City, where she writes full-time.

Positive: Good quality board for a board book
Fun wooly outside.
Large pictures
On the top of each page it has a heading that you can read instead of the text underneath.
Negative: Its too heavy for my 19 month old to carry Pictures were only on half of each page The fuzzy wool appears used even if you buy it brand new out of the box There is too many words for this to be a "baby" hug-a-bible. Overall: This box would work better for a kindergarten aged child. My 19 month old toddler LOVES to read and in fact points out objects and says words that follow stories of books. However this book is much to wordy for her. It is more of a "Child" bible not "baby" bible. The texture on the outside is fun but I can see sticky hands ruining it pretty fast. I will have to re-introduce it to her when she is older.

My toddler loves carrying this around and always picks it out of the bookcase. The soft, pseudo sheep wool on the cover is a brilliant extra touch. The art is pretty good. The rhymes are good. It's a nice bible for toddlers and babies.

I purchased this for a baby shower gift. It was a huge hit. The outside of the book is furry like a sheep! How fun is that. I love baby books and when I saw this one I knew it was a must have.

I bought this for my almost 9 month baby boy. He has "tale of three tree" boardbook but wanted to buy him the first bible. There are less than 10 stories but they are very encouraging and showing lots of love from God. The cover and the back is in fuzzy (kind of like big huge lint) type. They are quite big I have to say but very nice introduction to baby as a bible. If the books are made with cloth type, it would have been better so that baby actually can hug the book or even use as a pillow to sleep on it. Sleeping with bible would be very nice.

I bought this little bible twice: once for my goddaughter's baptism, and once for our friends' son's baptism. Both babies, even though they were around 3 months old at the time, enjoyed this a lot, liked to be read to, and loved its cuddly, soft cover. A major hit! The perfect gift for a baptism!

This made a very sweet baptism gift for my baby niece, and no one else had purchased the same gift (which is an accomplishment in and of itself). I think this little precious Bible will be loved as much when she is all grown up as it is now. I would buy this again, and very well might do so since my other sibling is now expecting her first baby.

This is like a regular (but large) boardbook with fuzzy material wrapped around the cover. It has 10 stories, which are really 2-paragraph poems paraphrasing popular Bible passages (Zacchaeus, creation, Nativity, Resurrection, Noah, Daniel in lions' den, Goliath, baby Moses, etc.)

An absolutely adorable and beautifully crafted first bible for baby. I was shocked my how beautiful the cover is! It is very soft and perfect for babies delicate skin. I bought this for my 1 yr god son and he loves looking at the pictures. As he grows I'm sure he will appreciate it more for the stories. I'm glad I purchased this very special gift for my very special little man!
