I love this book because even for someone very familiar with Cape Cod it offers information you may not have known. Aside from being a travel guide, you can read it just for fun. I have had previous editions of this book and they do update information as it happens. I would highly recommend it as an addition to your travel library.

This is a very informative book. It was my Bible for planning my trip to the islands. Don't hesitate to buy it.

Overwhelming amount of detail on history, what to do, where to stay and eat, etc. I couldn't imagine planning a trip to Cape Cod without this book.

I liked the way it is so down to earth. It's written from a "tourists" point of view. Just easy to understand and lots of descriptions. I would recommend this to anyone visiting Cape Cod and wanting to learn more about it.

spent a week on Cape Cod and used this book on our kindle fire to do a lot of searching out of different things to do in different areas. was GREAT in conjunction with our GPS made for a lot less lost time trying to find things to do.

I took this book with me while visiting life long home owners on Cape Cod. It has unique detail that even the residences didn't know...like the "Earl of Sandwich" didn't invent the name nor the town. They were surprised and talked it up in town. Useful book. Great history and detail.

This book was very helpful in exploring the island. The day trips are well outlined and if you follow them you'll have a good snapshot of the area. Descriptions were spot on and well done.

Used it a lot on trip to Boston and the Cape in Sept./2013. Would use it again.
