Customer Reviews

"In terms of comprehensiveness of coverage, the very accessible format, and the enthusiastic tone, this series remains one of the best on the market." —Booklist — "Fodor's super-informative guidebooks are known for accuracy and attention to detail" The Sacramento Bee "The Fodor's guides are notable for their ratings of sights, restaurants, shops, accommodations and attractions." Chicago Tribune "The great detail, infectious spirit, and attractive format are distinguishing traits of these guides, which are entries in one of the top series in the business." Booklist "Fodor's can help you plan the perfect adventure" The Arizona Republic "Always thoughtfully written and easily readable, Fodor's travel guides have become a must-have when traveling to unfamiliar destinations" Mid South Magazine "Widely recognized as the gold standard of mainstream travel" Honolulu Advertiser

Fodor's travel books are just not for me, and this book proves it. First it spends more time telling you how many tennis courts and hot tubs each resort has, than telling you about the interesting places you might visit. And the only places they ever give a "Fodor's Choice" to are places that only people wearing furs and tiaras hang out anyway. But most of all they seem too cool to get excited about the interesting places they are writing about. If you read this book, you really won't want to go. Try other travel books, they make traveling sound fun.
